Taft-Roosevelt Fight Drives Him Out of Country

Special to The Washington Herald.

Hagerstown, Md., July 13.—The continuous din of stormy battle and noisy strife between the conservative and progressive wings of the Republican party has driven one man, at least, out of the country.

Christian N. Snyder, of this city, has been worried into a nervous frenzy over the political controversy between the Taft and Roosevelt forces, and has decided to leave the United States forever. He is ashamed of a country which permits such verbal pyrotechnics as have been flung the atmosphere with fire and smoke for several months past.

Snyder is already off. He is on his way to Manitoba. On a quiet homestead in the far northwestern province, under the flag of Great Britain, he expects to live in peace. Times in the United States are entirely too strenuous for him.

The dissatisfied citizen intends to renounce the Stars and Stripes forever, and take the oath of allegiance to King George V.

PANAMA CANAL WILL BENEFIT COLOMBIA, SAYS MINISTER J. T. DUBOIS

New York, July 13.—James T. Dubois, United States Minister to Colombia, and Mrs. Dubois arrived here to-day aboard the steamer Zacaipa on their way to Haliestad, Pa., for their annual vacation.

Mr. Dubois predicts a great future for Colombia, and believes that her prosperity will be simultaneous with the opening of the Panama Canal.

It is the only country in South America bordered by the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. "Her harbors at Cartagena, Santa Marta, and Buena Ventura are the three finest on the continent, and they are the first harbors below the canal. The Colombians are looking forward to the opening of the canal in the firm belief that the long-delayed tide of prosperity will then sweep over their country."

Call at Western Ports.

The Denver will stop on the way down the coast at Topolobampo, Altata, Mazatlan, San Blas, Acapulco, and Salina Cruz. On the way back the Denver will touch at Manzanillo.

Argentina's corn crop for this year is estimated at 8,000,000 tons.
